APRIL 24-25, 2012 | MARRIOTT MARQUIS, NEW YORK

Managing the Global War for Talent

Companies of all sizes are grappling with the dilemma of finding, retaining and developing the best talent across the globe to meet today's competitive challenges. Our spring program will showcase CEOs and diversity leaders with the most innovative and successful approaches. These sessions will augment DiversityIncBestPractices.com's Living Textbook sections on Global Diversity, Talent Development, Succession Planning and Employee-Resource Groups.

Our two-day program, which will start in the afternoon of April 24, will provide a mix of high-level speakers and interactive panels and plenty of time for networking with your peers. No consultants will be allowed during the day-time learning sessions.

The event will feature a dinner the night of April 24 with a streamlined announcement of The 2012 DiversityInc Top 50 Companies for Diversity and a brief presentation on data findings from the new list.
